A Word to Republicans.

The hope of the party lies in the expansion of a statueart Republican press. The Republican who reads or otherwise helps to support a Democratic paper to the exclusion of one of his own party newspapers is untrue to the Republican cause,

Hon. Thomas H. Paynter, Democratic can didate, is respectfully invited to be present and a proper division of time will be accorded.

It is amusing to witness the "claims" of The Kentucky Journal. It glorifles over the fact that the Democrats carried orgia, and says they will also win in New York, Indiana, Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois, New Jersey and Connecticut We may next expect it to claim Ken-tucky, and to declare that the Dutch have taken Holland. But of the states ed, the Democrats are reasonably safe of only one, and they may carry

IF Mr. PAYNTER is the devoted friend of the old soldier that The Bulletin would have people believe, why did he vote against the passage of the General Pension bill? He should make a speech in Maysville and tell the old soldiers all about it.

GENERAL DANIEL E. SICKLES, a Democrat who lost a leg a Gettysburg, says 'No man will ever be elected to the Presidency of this country who has insulted the soldiers when speaking of the question of pensions." This shuts the editor of The Bulletin out.

WHENEVER it comes to a contest be tween the workingman of America and the workingman of Europe, THE LED-GER will be found on the side of the American every day in the year. Our neighbor The Bulletin is the advocate of European pauper labor, and constantly argues that American mechanics haven't intelligence enough to make tin plate.

THE Connecticut Democrats are for free raw materials-except on leaf tobacco. The Democrats of New Jersey are for Free-trade-except in pottery ware. The Democrats of South Carolina and rice. The Democrats of North Carolina are for Free-trade—except in lumber. The Louisiana are for Free-trade-except in for Free-trade-except in lumber. The Democrats of Alabama except iron from their demands for no Tariff. In fact, GROVER CLEVELAND will find on election day that there is no end to exceptions the Democrats make in their wish for Free-trade.

wail over the industrial situation in that country. Their only hope is now is the election of Mr. CLEVELAND and the repeal of the McKinley law. We are sorry for the English, but remedy they propose is worse-for usthan the disease. The McKinley law is likely to stand, and they may as well make up their minds to the fact that this is a country that believes in Protection to its own industries regardless on British manufacturers.

WE have refrained so far from making any personal attack on Judge Holl, and had hoped to be spared the necessity of doing so; but if we don't warm the wax in the Honorable Chief Justice's ears before November then we are very much mistaken.-Mt. Sterling Sentinel-

THE LEDGER is in possession of some facts in regard to the Democratic aspirant for Judge HOLT's old shoes that will make mighty interesting readin'. Let the work of warming the wax in the Chief Justice's ears begin as soon as you please, Mr. S.-D.; we promise to keep the mosquitoes off you while you are engaged in the job.

A GREAT deal has been said about cheap clothing for working people. Take for instance a carpenter who gets $21 per week; in 52 weeks he earns $1,092. He purchases for himself during a year clothing to the amount of $65, which is a very large sum. He has left $1,027.

A carpenter in England receives $7 92 per week for 52 weeks, which amounts to $411 84. Take from that $43 for his clothing in England, for himself he has left $368 84, while the American carpenter has $1,027.

Now, can any Free-trader make any figures that will enlighten the American workingman any better than these

THE name of HENRY CLEWS IS a synonyn for all that is sound and conservative in finance. He is the author of 'Twenty-eight Years in Wall Street," a work that has attracted universal admiration wherever the science of finance is understood. His opinion regarding fiscal officers is therefore entitled to great consideration, and this is what he has to say of the relative merits of President HARRISON and Mr. CLEVE-

Mr. CLEVELAND's letter, accepting the nomination would appear to be all right on the Tariff. Force bill, reform, pen-sions, etc., from the standpoint of the party of which he is the exponent, but as am on the other side, I rest perfectly satisfied with the position taken by Presi-dent Harrison in his letter of acceptance of his second nomination, as it covers the ground in all particulars for the best in-terests of this country in the administration of the Government during the next four years. With the impetus that this country is now under, in connection with its marvelous growth, wonderful devel-opment and strides in advancement in opment and strides in advancement in every direction. I am for the party of progress, which has never yet failed to show its willingness and ability to direct that go shead current, which is one of the vast resources of this country and the latter end of the nineteenth century de-mand for the honor and glory of the Nation and the welfare and prosperity of the American people.

THE unsightly fence that flanked the First Presbyterian Church has been removed, and the transformation is wonderful. A new stone or concrete pave ment would still further enhance the looks of the building.
